

Day 11 - The Beautiful Skin! - Your skin reveals the health of your innards. It can heal completely and is the largest organ of your body. It communicates physically and intuitively with massive amounts of nerve endings under the skin. We worked on past events we continue to focus on. I released fear about being driven in a car passenger seat. Feeling freer!

Day 12 - The Eyes - see Truth, both physically and intuitively. We worked with fears of seeing the truth. I felt my physical eyes strengthen as well as the visual cortex of my brain healing from head injury. My intuitive vision is developing as well. Just 2 more days to go!

Day 13 - The Brain - receives and perceives truth. If it is running Fear programs, guess what shows up - misperception of the truth. We can also manifest what we fear. Teacher Karen Ross helped me to release fear of accidents and the future. One more day to go of this amazing course!

Days 14/15 - The Ears & Body as a Whole - Very cool experience with ears "flushing" out some old infections. Could feel it happening and now can hear better. This is so cool!

7 of us graduated tonight. We're DONE! (for now). Taking a few days to integrate everything I've learned/cleared. Thanks to Karen Ross for teaching an incredible course!
